Paddle into the Wild

Dates Available

August 26-29, 2021

September 2-5, 2021

This three-night, four-day package allows you to take a breather from the everyday and unplug to enjoy the wild natural beauty of the Killarney region while gaining a deeper perspective of the Indigenous culture and history through the lens of the Anishnaabe people. Wikwemikong Tourism and Point Grondine Park have partnered with Killarney Mountain Lodge to bring you a combination of hard adventure and luxury amenities that adventure seekers and cultural explorers will appreciate.

Wikwemikong Tourism provides all the necessities for a safe and enjoyable backcountry experience at Point Grondine Park, one of Ontario's newest recreational wilderness parks. Your dedicated Indigenous Guide(s) will lead as you explore pristine lands in search of wildlife, retrace ancient canoe routes while learning about the local Indigenous history and culture. Complete your trip with a two-night stay at the Covered Portage at the Killarney Mountain Lodge where you will enjoy fine dining and a Sunset cruise on Georgian Bay.

Sample Itinerary

Day 1

Indigenous guides will welcome you with an orientation at the Point Grondine Park trailhead where you will begin to pack out on a backcountry adventure. Embark a 5km paddle through the Mahzenanzing River to Wemtagoosh Falls and Cedar Lake. Your guides will prepare camp at one of the most beautiful campsites in the Park along Cedar Lake. Here they will demonstrate how to prepare a traditional Indigenous meal with wild game/fish followed by storytelling under the dark sky where you will learn about Anishnaabe Astronomy and Constellations.

Day 2

Wake up to the morning sun with Indigenous medicine teachings while learning the origins of the drum. Guides will share drum teachings and songs that have been passed down through generations. Camp breakfast over the open fire will prepare you for a day of paddling and learning about how the Anishinaabe have used the waterways as their highways for millennia. End your day with dinner at the Killarney Mountain Lodge before settling in for a comforting stay the Covered Portaged Suites.

Day 3

Breakfast will be served at the Killarney Mountain Lodge before embarking on a Medicine Hike at the Granite Ridge hiking trail. The "Making Footprints" guided hike will share Indigenous knowledge of plant medicines and traditional edible plants that have been used by the Anishinaabe people for generations. A shoreline "hikers lunch" will be prepared for you along the trail where your guides will teach about the Indigenous history of the Collins Inlet Pictograph site, battles between the Anishnaabe and Iroquois tribes and Colonial settlement of the area.
